Higgs & Johnson Named Dispute Resolution Law Firm of the Year, 2011 for The Bahamas by Finance Monthly

Higgs & Johnson is pleased to announce that it is a Finance Monthly Law Awards Winner, 2011 in the category of Dispute Resolution Law Firm of the Year – Bahamas. Finance Monthly magazine provides complete international news coverage of M&A transactions, IPO's, venture financing, debt financing and privatisations. It also recognises the leading players from the corporate finance world and leading advisory firms for their expertise and success in its 'Finance Monthly Legal Awards'.

The Finance Monthly Law Awards exists to celebrate those who consistently deliver excellence within the legal profession. They conduct research based on interviews with the readers and interviews with firms around the globe. With a truly global reach, its combination of self-submission, voting and research ensures that the Finance Monthly Law awards accurately represent many of the leading lights in the legal profession today.

Oscar N. Johnson, Jr. Partner and Chair of the Litigation practice group commented, "The firm is proud to be recognized as a frontrunner in Dispute Resolution in The Bahamas by firms around the globe and aims to continue to deliver exceptional legal services."
