

HIGGS & JOHNSON

Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

NEWEST ASSOCIATE ADMITTED TO CAYMAN BAR

(L-R) The Honourable Judge, Mr. Justice Charles Quin; Francine Bryce and Country Managing Partner, Mr. Philip S. Boni

On 29 March, 2010 Francine Bryce was admitted to practise as an attorney-at-law in the Cayman Islands by the Honourable Mr. Justice Charles Quin QC on the application of Higgs & Johnson, Attorneys-at-Law.

Prior to joining Higgs & Johnson she practiced at DunnCox, one of Jamaica's largest and leading law firms. She has advised on a wide range of Corporate and Commercial law matters including acquisitions and mergers. She has also handled major transactions, both regional and international and has been involved in incorporation and administration of companies spanning three jurisdictions – Jamaica, Turks & Caicos Islands, and St. Lucia.

The admission application in the Grand Court was made by the firm's Country Managing Partner, Mr. Philip Boni, who welcomed Mrs. Bryce to the firm and expressed his pleasure at this opportunity to expand the services being offered by Higgs & Johnson at the Cayman office. Also attending the admission was Partner, Ms. Gina Berry, other colleagues and family members.

Justice Quin welcomed Mrs. Bryce to the Grand Court as an attorney and commented on her excellent academic background with first class degrees and noted that she must be well trained. He added that Higgs & Johnson is a well respected firm and that Mr. Boni and Ms. Berry would ensure Mrs. Bryce's continued training and wished her every success.

Mrs. Bryce said she was humbled and honoured to appear before Justice Quin for the first time, committed to making a contribution to the Cayman Islands and was very grateful to the Court and her colleagues at Higgs & Johnson for giving her this opportunity.
