

HIGGS & JOHNSON
Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

FIRM'S LITIGATION TEAM PRESENTS TO CENTRAL BANK

Tiffany Carter - Asst. Legal Counsel at Central Bank; Samantha Fox - Associate & Tara Archer - Partner at Higgs & Johnson; Michael Lightbourne - Deputy Governor of Central Bank; Oscar Johnson - Partner at Higgs & Johnson; Stacey Benjamin - Deputy Legal Counsel at Central Bank.

Members of the Higgs & Johnson Litigation team headed by Mr. Oscar N. Johnson, Jr. presented to the Central Bank on the Employment Act from the perspective of the both the employer and the employee detailing a number of relevant points of interest.

Deputy Legal Counsel, Stacey Benjamin thought the seminar went quite well. She noted that, "The Question & Answer session was particularly exciting and Managers were enthusiastic about participating. It gave the attendees and the presenters an opportunity to focus on the most important issues which concern us in the workplace environment. The information was both relevant and timely and the presenters did an excellent job of answering our questions and giving practical and sound legal advice."

Tara Archer, partner at the Firm, noted, "We gladly share our knowledge of the applicable laws and the practical application of the same with our clients as requested and to meet their needs. This educational session is just one of the ways Higgs & Johnson incorporates value-added benefits in our services to our clients."