

HIGGS JOHNSON TRUMAN BODDEN & CO

NEWEST ASSOCIATE ADMITTED TO CAYMAN BAR

Pictured (L-R:) Higgs Johnson Truman Bodden & Co Associates Raymond Davern and Kate Palfrey with Justice Charles Quin Q.C

On 6 October 2009 Kate Palfrey was admitted to practise as an attorney-at-law in the Cayman Islands by the Honourable Mr. Justice Charles Quin Q.C. on the application of Higgs Johnson Truman Bodden & Co. Kate has 6 years of experience in law and has undertaken a wide range of legal work, while specialising in commercial transactions and disputes.

Philip Boni, Litigation Partner stated: "We are thrilled to have Kate join our expanding Litigation team. Kate's excellent academic record and experience from a top 15 UK law firm will be an asset to our firm. All the Partners of Higgs Johnson Truman Bodden & Co join with me in welcoming Kate to the firm and wish her success in her career with us".

Kate graduated with a BA (Hons) First Class from the University of Warwick in the UK in 2001. Thereafter, she obtained Distinctions in both the Post Graduate Legal Diploma and the Legal Practice Course before commencing her training contract at the top 15 UK law firm, Pinsent Masons in 2003. Kate was admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales in September 2005. In February 2009 she was awarded a specialist LLM in competition law by King's College, London, whilst working as a solicitor in the Litigation department at Pinsent Masons.

Kate will be working in Litigation and commented "I very much look forward to working with Higgs Johnson Truman Bodden & Co and furthering my career by gaining valuable offshore experience in the Cayman Islands".

Outside of her legal career, Kate has a keen interest in film and literature, the subjects of her first degree. She has recently completed the PADI open water diving course and hopes to take advantage of Cayman's many diving opportunities.