

HIGGS & JOHNSON
Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

FIRM PROUDLY SUPPORTS THE PINK LADIES 32ND CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Photo (l-r): Gina Berry, Philip Boni & Chris Narborough, Higgs & Johnson partners; Rhett Arch, Pink Ladies Bazaar Coordinator; and Gaela Bailey, Higgs & Johnson associate.

Since the early 1980's, the Pink Ladies have been raising funds and volunteering for the NCVO, Pines Retirement Home, Health Services Authority, Lighthouse School, Special Olympics and other community projects. The activities that the Pink Ladies participate in are quite varied and diverse, with the funds being immediately returned to the Community through a variety of projects.

One of the longstanding fundraisers associated with this remarkable group of women is their Annual Christmas Bazaar. This year's 32nd Annual Christmas Bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 26, 2011 at Camana Bay.

Mrs. Rhett Arch, Bazaar Coordinator for the Pink Ladies, was on hand to meet with attorneys at Higgs & Johnson and receive the donation. Mrs. Arch expressed her gratitude and indicated that the Pink Ladies are expecting this year's Bazaar to offer exciting options for Christmas shoppers, who also want to support an excellent cause.

Ms. Gina Berry, Partner at Higgs & Johnson, commented that the firm was proud to be associated with such amazing women. Ms. Berry went on to indicate that volunteers like the tireless Olive Miller, one of the founders of Pink Ladies, were true role models.