

HIGGS & JOHNSON

Counsel & Attorneys-at-Law

Partner Re-Elected to TerraLex Board of Directors

Higgs & Johnson is pleased to announce that its partner, Surinder Deal, has been re-elected to the Board of Directors, re-appointed Regional Vice-Chair for the Caribbean and Central America and continues as the Chair of the Meetings of TerraLex, a large global legal network of law firms.

Surinder Deal has over 20 years of experience in Real Estate, Trust Law and Corporate and Commercial Law. She is a member of the Bahamas Bar Association and of the International Bar Association. She is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

TerraLex has 160 member law firms in 100 countries and 45 US states, and is the one of the largest international legal networks. As a member of TerraLex, Higgs & Johnson has access to expertise around the world from leading law firms in each member country ensuring that clients' needs are met regardless of where they arise.

TERRALEX®